International day of the rural women

We celebrated International day of the rural women in our institution on October 15th 2018 under the WEC.

The United Nations General Assembly established the International day of rural women in 2007, and the first day was celebrated on October 15th 2008.

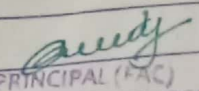

The day recognizes the contributions of rural women including indigenous women to agricultural and rural development and food security.

In our institution we organized this day because our students mostly they are come from rural background, students from various groups participated actively and shared their views on the topic given.

Ref:- 1. Resolution taken in the Staff Meeting conducted: Dated on : 03-09-2019

ORDER:

TTWR Degree College (G) Dammappeta for Tribal has been sanctioned at Dammappeta to Serve the fruits of education to the Tribal Girl students. It was established in the year 2017 and affiliated to the Kakatiya University. To develop a responsive and accountable attitude among all the stakeholders in order to maintain a harmonious educational atmosphere in the institute.

As per the mandate of the University Grants Commission (UGC) the college has constituted Anti Ragging Cell to prevent any physical or mental form of ragging on and off of the campus. Anti Ragging Cell is a Statutory Body to ensure that the college is free from any of Ragging.

To encourage female students to be self-reliant and economically independent. To instill positive self-esteem and confidence in life, need to empower them by creating awareness programs on women empowerment and also provide them certain resources which will enable them to be self-reliant women in the society.

To run an educational institution smoothly, effectively and successfully , need to follow and frame certain committees , which will improve the quantitative and qualitative metrics in the curriculum, which leads to the overall development of the students. Which also bridge the gap between the institution and Stakeholders of the college.

In view of the above, TTWRDC G DAMMAPETA has decided to form the Grievance Cell, Anti Ragging Cell , Women Empowerment Cell and Other Committees , which are enclosed below.

All the staff members are instructed to play an active role in the assigned committees and maintain proper records for future reference. Violation of rules and regulations of this order will leads to a strict action.

The Vice Principal of TTWRDC Girls Dammapeta and Academic In charge is hereby requested to initiate necessary action accordingly.
