Department of English ICT \PPT

Introduction

In today's digital world, ICT (Information and Communication Technology) plays a vital role in education. This report focuses on how ICT tools, especially PowerPoint (PPT), help students learn about English objects and information — such as vocabulary, definitions, classifications and real-world usage.

Objective of the Class

The main objectives of the ICT/PPT class were:

- ✓To use ICT tools effectively for English learning
- ✓To create and present information using PowerPoint
- ✓To identify and describe common English objects
- ✓To improve understanding of how information is organized and communicated

What Are English Objects?

English objects refer to everyday items that have names, features, and descriptions in the English language. For example:

Object	Description
Book	A source of information used for reading and learning
Pen	A writing tool used to write or draw
Table	A piece of furniture with a flat surface

Object*Description

Keyboard Part of a computer used to type information

These objects help learners expand vocabulary and improve communication skills.

Conclusion :

The ICT/PPT class on English objects and information was a successful learning experience. It helped students combine technology with language learning, making the process more interactive and enjoyable. Using PowerPoint to present vocabulary and descriptions helped improve both ICT skills and English language proficiency.
