Best practice title: Survey on Friendly Police in Devarakonda region.

Year of inception of the practice: 2022

Introduction:

The Survey on Friendly Police in the Devarakonda region is a research initiative designed to gather insights into community perceptions and experiences with the local police. This survey focuses on assessing factors such as trust, approachability, and satisfaction with police interactions within the Devarakonda region. By collecting data on these aspects, the survey aims to provide a nuanced understanding of the relationship between the community and law enforcement, facilitating informed strategies to enhance positive police-community dynamics in the Devarakonda area.

Objectives:

- Surveying friendly police objectives involves gathering feedback and insights to enhance community-police relations in the Devarakonda region.
- The objectives could include fostering trust, improving communication, and ensuring officers are approachable.
- The survey might explore public perceptions of police behaviour, community safety concerns, and satisfaction with law enforcement initiatives.
- The collected data can guide the development of policies, training programs, and community engagement strategies to create a more positive and collaborative relationship between the police and the community they serve.

Program Process:

Defined survey objectives, designed a clear instrument, selected participants, pilot test, collected data through varied methods, analysed using statistical tools, interpreted findings, and created a comprehensive report. Shared results with stakeholders for informed policy, training, and community engagement improvements. Follow-up surveys to track changes over time, contributing to positive police-community relations.
