NAME OF THE EVENT: PLAN INTERNATIONAL NGO AWARENESS ON WOMEN ABUSES

DATE: 21.08.2024

NO OF VOLUNTEERS: 212

LOCATION: PROJECTOR ROOM@COLLEGE, MEDAK

SUMMARY OF THE EVENT:

On This day, we hosted a pivotal awareness program on women's abuse in collaboration with PLAN India. The session aimed to educate and engage the college community on the critical issues surrounding women's abuse and to provide actionable steps for prevention and support.

The program commenced with an introduction by R Swathi, DL in Physics, who outlined the objectives and importance of the initiative. The session was designed to address various forms of abuse, including physical, emotional, and sexual, and to foster a deeper understanding of these issues among students and faculty.

PLAN India contributed significantly to the event by sending expert speakers, including Rahul (Programme Coordinator), Sujatha (Programme Officer) who provided an insightful presentation on the realities of women's abuse. Their discussion highlighted the prevalence of abuse, its impact on victims, and the social and legal frameworks in place to address these issues. The presentation was both enlightening and thought-provoking, prompting many attendees to reflect on their roles in combating abuse.

Following the keynote address, the program included an interactive Questionnaire facilitated by PLAN India's team. These workshops engaged participants in role-playing scenarios and group discussions, helping them to recognize signs of abuse, respond effectively, and support those affected. The practical exercises were designed to enhance empathy and equip attendees with skills to make a positive difference in their communities.

The session also featured a discussion segment where attendees had the opportunity to ask questions and seek advice from the experts. This open forum allowed for a dynamic exchange of ideas and provided clarity on complex issues related to women's abuse.

To conclude, the program offered a range of resources and support materials, including contact information for local support services and educational pamphlets. Attendees were encouraged to utilise these resources and to reach out for help if needed.

Emergency contact no police helpline - 100, women helpline - 181, Child helpline - 1098. Also many acts like POCSO ACT, UNSE ACT, ICC, LCC, IEC were also discussed by the officials to the students.

Overall, the awareness program was a resounding success, achieving its goal of raising awareness and fostering a supportive environment. Feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing a newfound understanding and commitment to addressing women's abuse. The event underscored the importance of ongoing education and engagement in combating gender-based violence and reinforced the college's commitment to social responsibility and advocacy.

LOCATION: DINING HALL@COLLEGE, MEDAK

SUMMARY OF THE EVENT:

Title: Educating students on Women trafficking and child abuse.

On 29.09.2024, a comprehensive awareness program was conducted at dining hall, TTWRDC W MEDAK COLLEGE, aimed at educating students about the critical issues of women trafficking and child abuse. Organized by NSS TEAM, TTWRDC W MEDAK in collaboration with Police department medak.

The initiative brought together 123 students from various grades to engage in discussions and activities centred around these pressing social issues.

The program began with an introductory session led by Manoj, who outlined the objectives and importance of the topic. This was followed by informative presentations that highlighted the various forms of trafficking, the psychological and social impact of child abuse, and the legal frameworks in place to protect victims.

Interactive sessions encouraged students to ask questions, share their thoughts, and discuss real-life scenarios, helping to foster a deeper understanding of the consequences of these issues. Role-playing activities enabled students to empathize with victims and learn how to identify signs of trafficking and abuse.

Additionally, the program featured testimonials from survivors and representatives from local NGOs, providing firsthand insights into the challenges faced by victims and the importance of community support in prevention and intervention efforts.

Feedback from participants indicated a significant increase in awareness and understanding of these issues, with many expressing a commitment to spreading knowledge within their communities. The program concluded with a call to action, encouraging students to become advocates against trafficking and abuse, emphasizing the role they can play in creating a safer environment for everyone.

Overall, the event was a success, significantly raising awareness and equipping students with the knowledge and tools to combat women trafficking and child abuse in their communities. A heartfelt thank you was extended to all speakers, volunteers, and participants for their contributions to this important initiative.

On 24.09.2024, the NSS (National Service Scheme) Day celebrations were held at TGTWRDC W MEDAK, marking a significant occasion to honour the contributions of NSS in promoting community service and social responsibility among students. Organized by NSS UNIT, the event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 123 students, faculty members, and local community leaders.

The program commenced with a formal inauguration, featuring a welcome address by K SHARATH DEEPIKA, NSS PO, who emphasized the importance of NSS in fostering a spirit of volunteerism and civic engagement. Following this, a series of activities showcased the achievements of NSS volunteers over the past year, including community service projects, awareness campaigns, and environmental initiatives.

Cultural performances, including songs and skits, highlighted the themes of social service and community welfare, engaging the audience and reinforcing the NSS values. Guest speakers, including alumni who had been involved in NSS, shared their experiences and insights, inspiring current students to actively participate in service initiatives.

The celebrations also included the distribution of certificates and awards to outstanding NSS volunteers in recognition of their dedication and hard work and also few competitions were conducted on the previous day. This segment motivated students to strive for excellence in their community service efforts.

The day concluded with a pledge to continue serving society and addressing pressing social issues through collective action. Feedback from participants reflected a renewed commitment to NSS activities and a deeper understanding of the impact of volunteerism.

Overall, the NSS Day celebrations were a resounding success, effectively promoting the ideals of service and responsibility among students. A special thanks was extended to all participants, organisers, and supporters who made the event memorable.
