GRADUATION DAY CELEBRATIONS

“When you wish upon a star, Makes no difference who you are, anything your heart desires, Will come to you!!!!”

Telangana Tribal Welfare Residential Degree College for Women, Medak has celebrated its Graduation Day on Saturday, 25th January 2025 in the Institute premises at 11.30 am. The dignitaries of the ceremony were Chief Guest Shri Gangaram Naik, Regional Coordinator, TGTWREIS, Medak, Principal, Dr. V Uma Devi, Vice Principal, Ms B Vijayalaxmi.

The Graduation Day ceremony started with the lighting of the lamp by all dignitaries on the stage and recitation of Saraswathi Vandana by our students.

Around 80 graduate students of 2020-23 and 2021-24 attended the ceremony to celebrate their success.

Ms. Sharath Deepika, DL in Botany gave the welcome speech. In her speech she welcomed all the dignitaries, invitees, faculty and graduates.

The Principal Dr V Uma Devi felicitated the Chief Guest with a bouquet and memento and was introduced to the gathering.

Principal, Dr V Uma Devi declared the graduation day open. In her presidential address she congratulated the graduates and in her address she pointed out that Learning is a Continuous Process by the Hard work and Dedication by teachers in shaping the graduates as responsible citizens of the country. TGTWRDC for Women, Medak is also maintaining high standards in education and helping to mold the young graduates to the society. India is overcrowded with 127 crores of population but showing the fastest growing economy in the world. Most of the key positions held in the US government are Indians, this is possible because of the Hard work, Dedication, Skills and Commitment to the Work.

The Chief Guest Shri Gangaram Naik, Regional Coordinator, TGTWREIS, Medak shared his experience by telling he had a concept in life to work as a team to achieve success. He guided the graduates and told them that learning and hard work is a key to success and is very much required for improving their professional career and life as there is no shortcut to it. He also discussed the challenges that he faced in the last 25 years of his career. He also encouraged our students that they should choose their career according to their passion and interest and not by pressure from society. As the graduates are entering into the new phase of life, he shared his Mantras which included “Dream and dream big”, “Journey is more exciting than the final destination”, “Always have a positive attitude in life”, “knowledge is power”. The graduates were enlightened by his speech, golden words and knowledge that he shared with them.

The speech was followed by prize distribution ceremony starting with distinction followed by certificate distribution to the graduates by all the dignitaries on the dais.

Vice-Principal, Ms. B Vijayalaxmi delivered a vote of thanks and the function ended with the national anthem and photo Session.
