VENUE: College Ground

INTRODUCTION:

Bathukamma is a Colorful Floral Festival Celebrated in Telangana, India, that Symbolizes the Strength of Women and Beauty of Nature.

Historically, Bathukamma meant “festival of life” and was celebrated to thank Goddess Parvati for her blessings for the crop harvest and income She helped generate this 2025 year and again ask her blessing for the Next year.

Bathukamma Celebrations in college

Telangana tribal welfare Residential Degree College For Women, Medak-Celebration committee organized Bathukamma Celebrations in college premises on 19th September, 2025

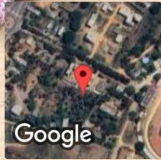

Women faculty and girl Students are dressed in resplendent attires to celebrate Bathukamma, the floral festival of Telangana. The atmosphere was lively as the students picked up the nuances of creating Bathukamma, considered a symbol of the beauty and eternal glory of Goddess Gauri and played around them, singing Bathukamma songs, so unique to Telangana culture. Since flowers, colours and celebration are an integral part of this festival; the girl students also wore the traditional 'Langa Oni' and adorned themselves with gold jewellery.

The guests who witnessed the event appreciated the girl students and Women faculty for encouraging togetherness, passion of creativity, team building spirit, learning and honing hospitality awareness through the festival.

College Principal Dr. V. Uma Devi and Vice Principal Vijaya Laxmi also participated in the programme.
